

Puzzle 8

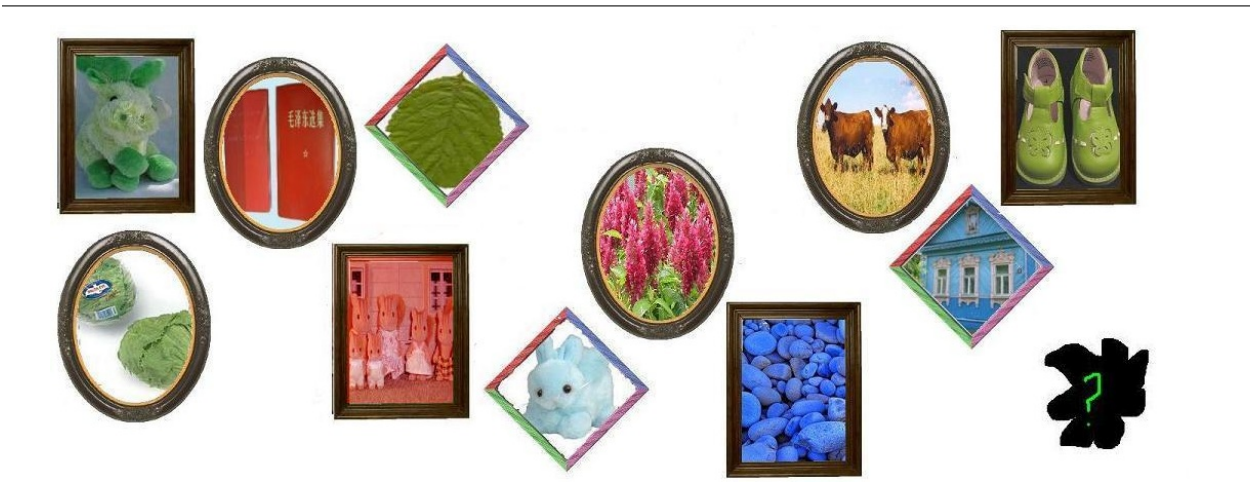

Condylarth Puzzle

23 July 2006

Abstract

This paper develops a new branch of mathematics that is referred to as “generalized applied category theory.” By solving the Problem Of Everything (POE), we solve every remaining problem in mathematics as corollaries from set theory and group theory on down; the only difficulty that remains is that the author still doesn’t understand the proof.

Bring us the missing picture.